Charles County Court,

August Term 1816.

On application to Charles County Court by petition in writing of John Budd, of Charles County, for the benefit of the act of assembly for the relief of sundry insolvent debtors, passed at November session 1805 & the several supplements thereto, on the terms mentioned therein; a schedule of his property and a list of his creditors on oath, as far as he can ascertain them, accompanying his petition; and the court being satisfied by competent testimony, that the said John Budd has resided two years immediately preceding the time of his application, in the state of Maryland. It is thereupon ordered and adjudged, that the said John Budd, by causing a copy of this order to be inserted in some one of the newspapers edited in the district of Columbia, once a week for two months, before the second Monday in March next, give notice to his creditors to APPEAR before the said court at the court house in Charlestown, on the said third Monday in March next for the purpose of recommending a trustee for their benefit, and to shew cause if any they have, why the said John Budd should not have the benefit of the act of assembly aforesaid, and of the several supplements thereto, as prayed.

DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA,

County of Alexandria, to wit: November Term, 1816.

IN CHANCERY.

The Common Council of Alexandria, complainants—against

Llewellyn C. Griffith, John F. Smith, and Peter Saunders, defts.

THE defendant Llewellyn C. Griffith, not having entered his appearance and giving security according to the statute and the rules of this court, and it appearing to the satisfaction of the court upon affidavit, that the said defendant Llewellyn C. Griffith, is not an inhabitant of this district—on motion of the complainant by his counsel, it is ordered, that the said defendant Llewellyn C. Griffith, do appear here on the first day of the next term of this court, and enter his appearance to the suit and give security for performing the decrees of this court: and that the other defendants John F. Smith and Peter Saunders, do not pay away, convey or secrete, the debts by them owing to, or the estate or effects in their hands belonging to the said absent defendant Llewellyn C. Griffith, until the further order or decree of the court: and that a copy of this order be forthwith published for two months successively in one of the public newspapers published in this county, and that another copy be posted at the front door of the court house of said county.

Lawrason and Fowle.

Notice.

The public are hereby informed that a Company has been formed under the title of THE QUANTICO WAREHOUSE COMPANY, who have erected, one mile below the town of Dumfries, a large and convenient Warehouse on Quantico creek, for the storage of flour, grain, etc which warehouse will be ready for the reception of produce on Monday the third of Feb. next. The trustees of said Company have appointed Zebulon Kankey their Agent, to attend the said Warehouse, to receive produce on storage and grant receipts for the same. And for the prompt delivery of all articles received in the said warehouse by their agent, (fire alone excepted) the Company hold themselves bound. All persons depositing flour, grain, etc, must pay, before taken away, the following storage, viz. For each barrel of flour 6 cents; if it remains in said warehouse one month 8 cents; and in the same proportion for the time it may remain. For each bushel of wheat or other grain two cents; if it remains over one month three cents: and in the same proportion for the time it may remain. And for all articles of merchandise a reasonable storage only will be demanded. Persons storing flour may have it inspected, or not, at their option. If not inspected, the agent's receipt will specify the brand and the state of the barrels. The weight of one bushel wheat, running measure of each load or parcel of wheat. All articles stored, the same to be returned to the owner when called for, be it flour, wheat, other grain, etc. Customary allowances for wastage, etc. excepted.

Quantico Warehouse is situated on Quantico Creek only two miles from its junction with the Potomac river, at all times navigable for lighters. There are belonging to this creek a sufficient number of lighters to ensure a brisk transportation down the creek of all articles stored. Vessels may be got to take produce to the district of Columbia Baltimore, Norfolk, or elsewhere. The present freights are—To the district twelve and half cents per barrel of flour, and to Baltimore and Norfolk 25 cents from the mouth of Quantico. The proximity of this warehouse to a large extent of country, added to the goodness of road leading to it from the westward being little inferior to paved ones. It being found by actual survey little more than 25 miles from Hay Market to Dumfries will, it is confidently believed by the trustees, by this route greatly lessen the expense of transportation of produce even to the district of Columbia, and they pledge themselves to the public to use every means within their power to give satisfaction.

FOR SALE.

THE Subscriber offers for sale his ESTABLISHMENT on the north side of Cameron street, situated on the centre of the square between the Bank of Alexandria and the City Tavern—Consisting of a three story Brick House with two stories in the rear, the whole covered with slate and running in one range of buildings from the front 117 feet 6 inches. The house contains 12 rooms (beside the store and cellars) 10 of them with fire places, some of them spacious and elegant, and few less than 15 by 15 feet in the clear, except one closet room; one front and two back stairways, a kitchen with two fire places, with stove for cooking, over which are servants' rooms, adjoining a pantry, smoke house and other necessary back buildings.

In front a portico, in the rear a covered way with piazas to the extreme end o the buildings.

The cellars are large, floored, and fitted up in the neatest manner, equal, if not superior to any in the district; the store over which is finished in the best stile, and has been occupied for a long time past as a fancy store, consisting of China, Delft, Glass and Hard Ware etc etc—The cellars as a Wine, Grocery and Spirit Store, etc.

The purchaser can have the goods on hand, which comprise a good assortment and have been carefully selected, at cost.

On the house, so far, there has been expended and paid upwards of 12,000 dollars. Nearly 16 feet of the lot in front remains to be built on.

The buildings are insured and nearly complete in every particular, and on examination will be found to be an establishment equalled by few here or elsewhere.

About two thirds of the amount for house goods, etc. would be required in hand, or in approved notes at short dates—on the remainder a long credit will be given.

He would wish, also, to sell, on a credit, or would barter for Goods, or Property in the district; two squares of two acres each, in the town of Jefferson, Ohio; both squares join in with the public square, on which has been erected the market house, court house, jail etc. The squares are divided into half squares by 33 feet alleys, and to each half square there is attached 8 acres of land immediately adjoining the town, as town farms, and to each square the remainder of 100 acres further distant This settlement is in a flourishing state, being the county and post town, situated on the river Grand, a short distance from Lake Erie the soil rich and of first rate quality.

Should he not be able to effect the sales above stated in a short time, on liberal and fair terms, he would have no objection to take a Partner in Trade, who, putting in one third or one half the interest he holds in the concern, would reap a proportionable part of the profits for assisting to conduct the business.

William Dunlap

N B. Arrangements might be made to accommodate a Partner with the whole or part of the dwelling house if necessary.

Virginia Legislature.

On Saturday, the bill respecting a Convention came up, on its passage, in the House of Delegates—The blank for ascertaining how many thousand of free white citizens would give a delegate to the Convention, was filled with five.

A motion was made by Mr. Atkinson to lay this bill on the table, to wait the fate of the bill for equalizing the representation in the Senate, &c.—Lost, Ayes 65, Noes 77.

Some discussion ensued on the final passage of the bill—on which the Ayes and Noes were called, and they were found to be, Ayes 79, Noes 73.

So the bill was passed, and ordered to be immediately transmitted to the Senate for concurrence.

Mr. Blackburn then reported a bill "For arranging the counties into districts for the election of Senators, and for equalizing the land tax"--which was read the first and second times, committed to the Committee of the Whole on the State of the Commonwealth, being made the order of the day for this day, and ordered to be printed.

BALTIMORE, Feb. 4,

From our Correspondent at Annapolis.

The bill from the house of delegates, for the alteration of all such parts of the constitution and form of government as relate to the mode of electing the members of the senate, and which passed the popular branch by a very large majority, was yesterday rejected in the senate, after an able discussion of three days. Messrs. Taney & Winder advocated the provisions of the bill, and Messrs. Winchester and Dorsey opposed them—the question upon its passage was decided by a vote of 8 to 4.

On motion of Mr. Washington, leave was granted in the house to bring in a bill to alter the mode of filling up vacancies in the senate.

The bill for the erection of a new criminal court in the city of Baltimore which originated in the senate and passed that body, has been passed by the house, with a few unimportant amendments, which will no doubt be sanctioned by the senate.

The bill for the separation of Baltimore county from Baltimore city, was referred on motion of Mr. Harryman, to the next general assembly.

The address for the removal of judge Hollingsworth which had passed the house, was adopted by the senate, who returned it to the house with a message stating, that their concurrence in the measure was entirely founded upon the neglect of judge Hollingsworth to perform his duties, there being no proof before that body sufficient to establish the other charges against him.

The bill for the incorporation of St. Andrew's Society, has passed both houses.

Mr. GEORGE TAYLOR is elected a director on the part of the state, of the Farmer's and Merchant's Bank of Baltimore.—Fed. Gaz.

In addition to the information contained in the letter from our correspondent, we learn from Annapolis that by the bill establishing a City Criminal Court which, as he states, has passed the House of Delegates with slight amendment, the Associate Judges are permitted to practice in Courts of Equity alone--the salaries of the judges are not established by this bill. A bill was introduced in the senate to appoint three commissioners of Insolvency for Baltimore, with the power to dispense with the assent of creditors, and almost every other condition requisite for the release of debtors, except the two years residence. The bill for annexing the precincts to the city has passed the house of delegates, and no doubt was entertained of its passage through the senate. A motion by Mr. Stoddert, to print the judiciary bill for the consideration of the people, was opposed by Mr. Potts and negatived. The bill to erect a criminal court for Frederick county has also been negatived. A resolution has passed both houses to vest a certain sum in the Farmers' & Merchants' Bank of Baltimore, which will entitle the state to one director, who has been elected, as will be seen by the letter from our correspondent. A bill to vest the power of appointment to Directorships in Governor & Council, has been reported.—ib.

ALEXANDRIA.

THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 6

FROM OUR CORRESPONDENT AT WASHINGTON.

February 5.

It has all along been meditated by those gentlemen to whom the public are indebted for the U. States Bank, to apply the Bonus which by stipulation that bank is to pay to government, to the purposes of internal improvements, that is to say, of making roads and cutting canals to connect the most remote parts of the union by a more speedy intercourse with each other, and so increase and extend our internal navigation, already by nature the finest in the world, by forming artificial communications between our inland rivers and lakes. Yesterday the house resolved into a committee, to take into consideration a bill brought in for that purpose by Mr. Calhoun, who introduced the subject with a speech full of energy and manly sense, in which after displaying the manifold advantages to the nation with which his proposed plan was fraught, took a succinct view, by anticipation, of all the objections which might be raised against it, and answered them all, to the perfect satisfaction, I believe, of every dispassionate man present, and then enforced the adoption of the bill by an appeal to the common sense and patriotism of the house. There are so many pretty ways of disposing of a large sum of money, that it is no wonder several proposals were made for applying this Bonus Errant to other purposes than those suggested by Mr. Calhoun. Mr. Wright thought it would be better to appropriate it to the discharge of the national debt, and thereby relieve the people from the Land tax.

Mr. Robertson tho't that it would be much more usefully employed in the establishment of schools for the education of the rising crop of citizens, and said there were many ways of laying out this cash superior to that of making roads and canals. There was indeed as serious a diversity of opinion about dispatching this Bonus as there was between the Big Endians and the Little Endians in Gulliver's Travels about breaking open the Egg. When they have once agreed however, whether it shall be broken up on the big end or the little end, the probability is that it will be swallowed with little difficulty & without salt, pepper, or vinegar to render it palatable. Prosperous times these, Mr. Snowden, when half a million BONUSES (for I cannot agree with Mr. Randolph in thinking that such things are MALUSES) are going about begging Appropriations, and start suddenly into grasp like an unexpected pot-luck dinner, into the mouth of a hungry traveller.

I recommend it however to the gentlemen who find it so difficult to agree about the mode of disposing of this little windfall, to beware that it does not fare with them as it once did with a certain worthy baronet and a neighbor of his, on the coast of Sussex in England.

By some unaccountable submarine volcanic eruption an island of about two hundred fat acres was thrown up from the sea, and appeared one morning within pistol shot of their estates, and so equally on the shore of each estate, that it seemed to belong as much to one as the other.—Instead of agreeing to divide this God-send, they agreed to go to law about it, in order to see which should have the whole:—with the assistance of two able attornies they brought the island and themselves into chancery, where they kept moving at the rate of 3000 pounds sterling a year, and would perhaps have continued so to move to this day, as it was only five and twenty years since it happened, but for an event as singular as the first sudden appearance of the island, and that

I hope our gentlemen won't let their bonus slip in that inconsiderate way from between their fingers.

But to return to the house of Representatives, an attempt by Mr. Wright to get rid of the bill by striking out the first section, was negatived, and the bill with a two-fold amendment, proposed by Mr. Robertson and Mr. Telfair. which gives in distribution to the states the money to each in proportion to its representation in Congress, but reserves to the general government the right of designating the course of the roads and canals, was reported to the house.

COMMUNICATION.

DISTRESSES OF THE POOR.

NOTWITHSTANDING the humane exertions of the different societies now operating for the relief of the poor, there is evidently much real suffering and distress. The smallness of their funds has created the necessity of extreme economy in the appropriations; so that the help afforded can give only a momentary respite to the general calamity. The total loss of employment, the high prices of provisions, and the inclemency of the weather, has extended the evils of poverty far beyond the ordinary class of paupers, and have reduced many, who, in common times can shift for themselves, to beggary. The writer of this article knows that there are many now in town, without wood, without provisions, and in actual pain from hunger and from cold. Why do the gentlemen of the council, the legitimate guardians of the poor, withhold their accustomed aid? Why does the society which met at the bank of Potomac lock up its funds? Do they wait till the weather becomes colder?

The gentlemen who compose the society which is in the habit of meeting at the Bank of Potomac are respectfully requested to meet at said place on Saturday evening next at half past 6 o'clock.

We are very happy to state, that at the conference held last week in Philadelphia between the deputation of the principal State Banks and the directors of the United States Bank, an arrangement was made and unanimously agreed to, to resume the payment of SPECIE on the 20th of February instant. This information we have from an official source, and is entirely to be relied upon.

Fed. Gazette.

A letter from a person on board our squadron in the Mediterranean, mentions, that a man belonging to the frigate Java, was accused at Messina on board a British merchant schooner of stealing some leather, and severely flogged by order of the mate—altho' the leather was given him by a man belonging to the schooner. That this treatment was retaliated on English seamen on shore.

A deserter from the United States sloop of war Ontario, was afterwards taken out of the above schooner at sea. Her sailing being watched for that purpose.

Commodore Chauncy, while in Naples Bay, reduced the number of his squadron there to five, to comply with the wishes of the king and an old rule as was stated.—[Bost. Pat.

Gambling is about to receive a serious check in Kentucky, if a Bill before the Legislature shall become a law. It requires an oath to be taken by every person accepting a civil or military office, that he will not, during his continuance in office, bet any money or property on any game at hazard, or in any other manner, shooting at a mark excepted.

From the Louisiana Gazette.

The Congress frigate has arrived off the Balize from a cruize in the Gulf of Mexico, during which it is said she fell in with two of the Spanish vessels which made the late dastardly attack on the Firebrand, which she overhauled after a chase of some hours. It is also said that the reason given by the copper captain for running from the Congress, was that he thought her a Mexican frigate which was building at Baltimore for the Patriots. Had the valorous Don been convoyed by two or three Santissima Trinidadas he would probably have attempted to play the same trick with capt. Morris that he did with lieut. Cunningham—and have given the same reason for it.

We are informed that Beverly Chew, Esq. has been appointed collector of the port of New Orleans, vice P. L. B. Duplessis, Esq resigned.

From a Canada Paper of Jan. 18.

The American papers, received by the Swanton Mail, give no later accounts from Britain and France, than we had last week. The American Journals are filled with the reports of the Committee of Congress, burglaries highway robberies and thefts. The proceedings of Congress so far as they have yet developed themselves, are uninteresting to this country. We have heard nothing reported by the Committee of Foreign Relations which would probably be totally applied to Britain respecting the intercourse with our West India Colonies. However, this is not a matte of surprise. Any thing that could be moved on that important topic, would be an attack on the administration, for suffering themselves to be outwitted in the Commercial Convention of 1815. We may perhaps see some lengthy speeches, moving resolves, which will most likely be negatived by considerable majorites, under the pretence that this is not the most favourable period to trammel the government with difficulties, that are really of minor importance to the landed interest of the nation; and which could only be productive of irritating the best customer for cotton, tobacco, indigo, and other staple productions of the soil.

PUNNING

At a tavern one night,
Messrs. More, Strange, and Wright
Met to drink, and good thoughts to exchange:
Says More "of us three
The whole town will agree
There is but one Knave, & that's Strange."

Says Strange, rather sore,
I'm sure there's one More,
A terrible Knave and a Bite,
Who cheated his Mother,
His Sister and Brother:
'O yes,' replied More, 'that is Wright!.

Ye different Sects who all declare
Lo! Christ is here, and Christ is there!
Your stronger proofs divinely give.
And shew me where the Christians live.

☞ Sometime since we copied from a Hanover paper, a pretty little poem called the "Poet's Hour of Peace," and now with pleasure, and we hope with profit, extract the following counterpart.

Boston Gent.

From the Concord Middlesex Gazette.

THE PRINTER'S "HOUR OF PEACE"

By the Author of the
"POET'S HOUR OF PEACE."

Know ye the Printer's hour of peace?
Know ye an hour more fraught with joy
Than ever felt the maid of Greece,
When kiss'd by Venus' am'rous boy?

'Tis not when round the mazy case.
His nimble fingers kiss the types;
Nor is it when the lengthen'd face
The sturdy devil's tail he gripes:

'Tis not when news of dreadful note,
His columns all with minion fill;
'Tis not when brother Printer's quote
Th' effusions of his stump worn quill

'Tis not when all his work is done
His glimm'ring fire he hovers near.
And heedless of the coming dun,
Grows merry o'er a plat of beer.

'Tis not when in Miss Fancy's Glass.
Long advertisements meet his eye,
And seem to whisper as they pass,
"We'll grace your columns bye and bye!"

Nor is it when with numerous names
His length'ned roll of vellum swells,
As if 'twere touch'd by conj'rors wand,
Or grew by faries' magic spells.

No—reader, no—the Printer's hour,
His hour of real sweet repose,
Is not, when by some magic pow'r
His list of patrons daily grows;

But O, 'tis when stern Winter, drear,
Comes rob'd in snow and rain and vapor
He hears, in whispers soft and dear,
"We've come to pay you for the—PAPER!"

The following just tribute to the memory of Dr. Dwight, is from the New York Spectator.

—Verily a great and good man "has this day fallen in Israel."

"And I heard a voice from heaven saying unto me, write, blessed are the dead who die in the Lord from henceforth: Yea, saith the Spirit, that they may rest from their labors—and their works do follow them."

The death of such a man as President Dwight, we consider as a public calamity of no ordinary kind. He possessed a strong and highly cultivated mind; and both as a minister of the Gospel and the President of a College, he was highly distinguished and pre-eminently useful. In which capacity he shone most conspicuous, it is difficult to decide. His talents for either were indeed of the highest order. As a preacher of the Gospel he was learned, eloquent, energetic and persuasive; and as a literary teacher he possessed a familiar and thorough acquaintance with general science, a peculiar facility of communicating instruction, a combined affability and dignity of manners, and a happy faculty of correcting the irregular habits and restraining the wayward disposition of youth, which enabled him to fill with unrivalled reputation the important and useful station in which the Providence of God had placed him.

His mode of governing the College was entirely of the parental kind; and whenever he found it necessary to exercise the authority with which he was clothed, he pursued a course which, while it was calculated to produce the most salutary influence on all the students of the college, rarely failed to gain for himself the esteem, the affections of the very pupils on whom the punishment was inflicted. We have often witnessed the truth of this remark. We have seen the whole of the students assembled in the College Chapel—the president ascended the pulpit, and having closed the evening worship, read the proceedings of the faculty, which had deservedly sentenced one student to expulsion, two to be placed for a season under a private teacher in a distant village, twelve to receive public, and twenty a private admonition; the twelve were directed to present themselves in the aisle: they came forward with an evident intention to disregard the punishment; but before the president had finished his affecting, parental admonition, their froward spirits were subdued; the flowing tears proclaimed their contrition; and from that moment they became examples to others of studious habits and of regular and correct deportment. No man we believe, was ever better qualified to preside over a literary institution; none more beloved by his pupils; none more extensively useful to his country. Nearly one thousand of the American youth having finished their education under his immediate instruction, are scattered over every state in the Union, some of whom are already in congress, others in the pulpit, on the bench, at the bar, in the practice of the healing art and in commercial pursuits, all of whom loved him as a father, all of whom will hear of his death with deep and undissembled sorrow.

We have not attempted to draw even a sketch of his high and esteemed character: but having at an early period sat under his ministry, and having been associated with him in the government and instruction of the College over which he presided, it would accord with neither the feelings nor the duty of the editor of this paper, to publish his death, without paying this small tribute of respect to his memory.

Port of Alexandria.

FROM THE EXCHANGE COFFEE HOUSE BOOKS.

February 4.

A Boston paper 31st ult. states, that the schooner Adeline, from Alexandria, bound for Surrinam, had been spoken in lat. 31, lon. 66, 40; having lost her deck load in a gale. Time not mentioned when spoken or by whom.

The owner of the Adeline, has received a letter from the supercargo, dated 27th December, mentioning that the loss was only a few shingles, that went overboard in the gale—every thing else safe, and all hands well.

Accounts from Boston, January 31st, state, that a sloop had gone to the relief of the schooner Susan, Parsons, hence, [and now aground on Bird Island Bar in that harbor] and that the sloop had also been caught in the solid ice. It was expected both vessels would be got off without receiving much injury.

Charleston, Jan. 30.

Arrived yesterday schooner Caroline, George, Havana. Passengers, Don Domingo Dominiques, and Don Miguel de la Torrey. Left ship Pierse Manning Pratt: brigs Saucy Jack, Humphreys; and Lerwick, M'Lean, and a large number of Americans. The Caroline, shortly after sailing, had her foremast carried away in a gale and put back to refit. The sloop Gallatin formerly of this port, arrived at Havanna from New Orleans the day the Caroline sailed. Markets at Havanna. Flour $21: rice 8: coffee 13: brown sugar 8: white do 11: molasses 10 bits per keg: honey 50 cents per gallon.

Strayed or Stolen,

From a waggon, last evening, about two miles from Alexandria, on the road to Fairfax court house, a likely BAY HORSE, about 15 and half hands high, handsomely nicked, the end of his tail nearly white. JAMES KENNEDY & SON,

BOOKSELLERS, KING STREET,

Have just received from LEE'S PATENT MEDICINE Store, No. 46 Maiden Lane, N. York,

A FRESH SUPPLY

Of the following genuine Medicines.

For the prevention and cure of Bilious and Malignant Fevers, is recommended

Hahn's Anti-Bilious Pills

THIS Medicine has been attended with a degree of success highly grateful to the inventor's feelings, in several parts of the West Indies, and the Southern & Middle States, particularly in N. York Philadelphia, Baltimore, Petersburg, Richmond, Norfolk, Edenton, Wilmington, Charleston, and Savannah. The testimony of a number of persons at each of the above places can be adduced, who have reason to believe, that a timely use of this salutary remedy has, under Providence, preserved their lives, when in the most alarming circumstances.

Facts of this conclusive nature speak more in favour of a medicine than columns of pompous eulogy, founded on mere assertion.

It is not, indeed, presumptuously proposed as an infallible cure, but the inventor has every possible reason that can result from extensive experience, for believing that a dose of these Pills, taken once in every two weeks during the prevalence of our bilious fevers, will prove an infallible preventative: and further, that in the earlier stages of those diseases, their use will very generally succeed in restoring health, and frequently in cases esteemed desperate, and beyond the power of common remedies.

The operation of these pills is perfectly mild, so as to be used with safety by persons in every situation, and of every age.

They are excellently adapted to carry off superfluous bile & prevent its morbid secretions—to restore & amend the appetite—to produce a free perspiration and thereby prevent colds which is so often of fatal consequences. A dose never fails to remove a cold if taken on its first appearance—they are celebrated for removing habitual costiveness—sickness at the stomach and severe head-ache—and ought to be taken by all persons on a change of climate.

They have been found remarkably efficatious in preventing and curing disorders attendant on long voyages, and should be procured and carefully preserved for use by every seaman.

HAMILTON'S WORM DESTROYING LOZENGES.

Which have cured an immense number of persons of both sexes, of every age, and in every situation, of various dangerous complaints arising from worms, and from obstructions or foulness in their stomach and bowels.

This medicine bears no analogy whatever to others of similar titles so commonly complained of, as operating with violence; on the contrary, a particular excellence of this remedy is its being suited to every age and perfectly safe, it contains nothing but what is constitution innocent, and is also mild in its operation, cannot injure the most delicate pregnant lady or the tenderest infant of a week old, should no worms exist in the body; but will, without pain or griping, cleanse the stomach and bowels, of whatever is foul or offensive, and thereby prevent the production of worms, and many fatal disorders. The lozenges are particularly efficacious in carrying off all gross humours and eruptions, feverish and bilious complaints, and are the safest and mildest purgative that can be used on any occasion.

DESCRIPTION OF WORMS.

And the symptoms by which they are known:

Worms which infest the human body, are chiefly of four kinds, viz.—The Teres, or large round worm; the Ascarides, or small maw-worm; the Cucurbitina, or short, flat, white worm; and lastly, the Tænia, or tape-worm, so called from its resemblance to tape. This is often many yards long and is full of joints. It is most hurtful and most difficult to remove.

Among the symptoms attending worms are—disagreeable breath, especially in the morning; bad and corrupted gums; itching in the nose, and about the seat; convulsions, epileptic fits, and sometimes privation of speech; starting and grinding of the teeth in sleep; irregular appetite, sometimes loathing food, and sometimes voracious; purging, with slimy & fœtid stools; vomiting; large and hard belly; pains and sickness at the stomach; slow fever, with small and irregular pulse; a dry cough; excessive thirst; sometimes pale and unhealthy countenance, and sometimes the face coated and flushed.

Persons afflicted with any of the above symptoms, should have immediate recourse to Hamilton's Worm Destroying Lozenges, which have been constantly attended with success, in all complaints similar to those above described.

A dose of this medicine given occasionally during the warm season, will effectually prevent 'the vomiting and purging of chint'—a dreadful disorder, which annually destroys the hands of the infant part of our citizens it likewise to the mildest and most certain remedy known and the restored to health and strength a great number, when in an advanced stage of this fatal complaint. Particular and plain instructions are given for every part of the necessary treatment in such cases.

Children generally take this medicine with eagerness; having a pleasing appearance, and an agreeable taste.

TO PARENTS AND GUARDIANS.

Extract from the Militia Law of the District of Columbia.

Sec. 28. And be it further enacted, that the respective courts of enquiry shall have power to cause to be bound for a term of years to the several commandants of companies, battalions, and legions and their successors in office, as the case may require, such number of boys and young men with the consent of their parent, or other person authorised, as they in their discretion may think proper, for the purpose of being instructed in the different branches of military music and of serving as musicians when they may be competent thereto to the several companies, battalions and legions; and the father of any youth who may be so bound, otherwise subject to be enrolled, shall be exempt from all duty in the militia so long as his son so bound may continue to serve in the corps to which he would otherwise belong, as well during his apprenticeship as thereafter: and the several legionary courts of enquiry shall make provision from time to time for the cloathing, maintenance, and the properly instructing all such youths, to be paid from the fund arising from the fines imposed by this act; and the commanding officers of legions, shall cause the drummers and fifers and other musicians of their respective legions, to meet at the same times and places that commissioned officers are required to meet, for the purpose of being trained by the brigade inspector, or other officer, there to be instructed in their respective branches of music for which purpose the commanding officer of the legion may employ such person or persons as he may think proper and capable to instruct such drummers and fifers, and other musicians.

ROBBERY.

On the night of the 6th of December, 16, the Exchange Office of the subscriber, Bridge street, Georgetown, from appearances by a false key, was robbed of the following property, in Specie, consisting of dollars, change, American and English gold, about 200 dollars; bank notes, mostly three dollar notes of the bank of Washington, and some small tickets, together about 30 dollars, a one pound note of the bank of England, and one hundred and sixty four lottery tickets as per numbers below. The lottery tickets can be of no use to the persons taking them, and an attempt to pass them would only lead to a detection, it is therefore hoped that the person or persons who took them, will return them to the subscriber through the Post Office at Georgetown. A liberal Reward will be paid by the subscriber for any information that may lead to the discovery of the persons or a recovery of the property All keepers of lottery offices in the United States will please to keep a list of the numbers of the following tickets, as it may lead to a discovery of the theft.

Land for Sale.

A tract or parcel of Land, containing between two and three hundred acres, on the north side of Occoquan, in Fairfax county, about 5 miles west of Occoquan mills. It is well watered with never failing springs, it is also well timbered, and the great quantity of fur timber on it renders it the more valuable to any person in the coopering line. This land is of the middle soil, and produces corn, wheat or any other grain tolerable well—there is about 100 acres cleared and under good fence. The improvements are a log dwelling house & other out houses, and a good apple orchard of about sixty trees.

ALSO,

One other tract in the same county, within three miles of Occoquan, lying on Sandy Run, containing 47 acres—one half in cultivation and under good fence, the remainder heavily timbered. There are on the premises an old framed dwelling house and out houses and an apple orchard of eighty bearing trees.

Any person inclining to purchase can view the premises and know the terms by applying to the subscriber who lives near them.
